FOOTBALL TEAM

These boys worked hard every evening, after school, practicing and getting in shape for the game they love, Football.

They did a great job in every game and really clicked as our teams of M.H.S.

The Student Body is proud of the team and is always willing to back it whether rain or snow, home or away or win or loose, for they still represent Medina High School.

RESERVES

FIRST ROW: Roland Fish, Niles Englund, Ronald Standen, Gary Davis, Ronald Bryenton, Dick Linton, Ronnie Duke, Dick Brown.

SECOND ROW: Coach Salisbury, Roy Wagner, Joe Stefan, Dick Vana, Jerry Booth, Darrel Seibert, Roger Anderson, Dean Snyder, Bob Watkins, Manager.

The reserve basketball squad may not have won many games but they played their hearts out in every game, no matter win or lose. Thanks to Coach Salisbury the boys learned sportsmanship and had good, clean fun.

Nancy Sheerlein

This year seven girls led the football team on to victory. At every home game these girls went down to the stadium and decorated the goal posts for Medina and the visiting team. Also for every game the girls planned a pep rally for the team showing them that the school was behind them.

For every game the girls were presented with corsages from the courtesy of Houses' Flowers.

The girls appreciated this very much.

The cheerleaders have worked very hard this year to back the team with school spirit. At every game, rain or otherwise, the girls were always on the job doing the best they could.

The girls enjoyed being cheerleaders and wouldn't trade this honor for any other activity in M.H.S.

Girls' Basketball is a little more prominent again after a lapse of a few years. The girls enjoy playing the game and it gives them a chance to meet new friends and compete against other schools, although there is no league.

CROSS COUNTRY

Jack Shelton   Ed Tardif   Bucky Walters   George Brantner   Ken R. Smith   Bill Locy   Harvey Carter

To beat the enviable record of last year's Cross Country team was the goal established by our present squad, above; and although no meets have been run as this copy goes to the printer, we are sure the records will be equaled or broken.

DRAMATICS CLUB

This season the M.H.S. Dramatics Club has endeavored to do as much as possible to present to its members a directed course of basic stagecraft.

Throughout the year, whenever the busy play schedule allowed time for a meeting, the club attended classes each of which featured a particular phase of theater work, such as makeup, construction, lighting, etc.

Plays, presented by or in affiliation with the Drama Club during this season were, besides the senior and contest plays, Herczeg's "Seven Sisters", and Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." The stage crew for the latter was composed entirely of freshmen, who received this privilege as compensation for the fact that they were deprived of a Freshman play.

Oh, yes—we worked our way out of the deep, deep red. That in itself is representative of an extremely successful year.

DRAMATICS

FIRST ROW: Faye Gedeon, Frances Linn, Nancy Sheerlein, Becky Young, Winnie Gray, Frances Jones, Kay Parish, Beverly Pelton.

SECOND ROW: Nancy Finch, Fred House, Ken C. Smith, Larry Schulz, Ken R. Smith, Bob Palsha, Linda Eastwood.

The production of this annual was completed after many acts but, no scenes. A blend of bright lights, clacking typewriters, rubber cement, India ink, student lists, galley proofs, re-writes and deadlines all led slowly, but surely to a happy ending.

HOMECOMING

One of the main events in the hearts of the 1952 Seniors which will long be remembered is the annual Homecoming.

Our team elected Winifred Gray, Queen, and Wilma Jones and Becky Young as her attendants.

At the pep assembly before the Rocky River game, Queen Winifred expressed her thanks and appreciation for being given this great honor.

The presentation of the football to the Co-Captains preceeded the game which was a real thriller all the way with Medina winning 9 to 0.

This exciting day ended with a dance at the High School with music by our own Stardusters.

Y-TEEN FORMAL

The theme of this year's Y-Teen Formal was Evening in Paris. A very efficient committee of girls arranged for Les Elgin's orchestra to play. All in all it was one of the best Y-Teen Formals Medina High School has ever seen.

"Yea, music is the prophet's art
Among the gifts that God hath sent—
One of the most magnificent."
Longfellow

MARCHING BAND

This year's Marching Band under the direction of Richard Stacy was a really high stepping organization.

The group started practicing in the hot August sun and continued every afternoon until the cold, blustering November.

The band this year had some special routines with specific dance steps to accompany the music such as the Charleston, Polka, and Square Dance.

The fans seemed to enjoy the half-time shows but not half as much as we, the band members enjoyed performing them.

On Memorial Day the band gave a marching exhibition in Cleveland Stadium as guests of the Cleveland Indians Baseball Club.

They performed between games of a double header. This opportunity was made possible by the interest and work of the Band Parents' Association. The band felt, particularly honored, as only the best bands in the state are favored with this opportunity.

Lorie Schindelholz bequeaths her typing ability to any person who can afford the paper.

Chuck Schlechty leaves his seat in Mr. Dague's home-room he so nobly advanced.

Harvey Schroeder being of sound mind wills his extraordinary imagination to Francis Grim: To Dean Snider he wills all the things under the back seat.

Larry Schulz bestows his ability to raise heck in choir to some innocent freshman who enjoys singing, but would rather have fun at the expense of the poor director; to Miss Strock he leaves his thanks for her patience.

Shawzie Shaw wills her three years as a majorette to any sophomore who will have as much fun and do as well.

Nan Sheerlein leaves her three years of Varsity cheer-leading to Joyce Messenger in hopes that she does her best with them.

Jack Shelton wills all the fun he has had out of town to any junior boys that are lucky enough to meet girls in all the other towns.

Jean Siman leaves her bashfulness to Barbara Spieth and hopes that she can do better with it than Jean did.

Lightning Smith bequeaths his seat on the bench to next year's guard. Guard of the water bucket, that is.

CLASS WILL, Continued

Ken C. Smith leaves his place behind the amplifier at the stadium to any senior who needs physics credits and can stand cold feet.

Pete Smith wills his silent thoughts to anyone who thinks he can express and make better use of them than he did.

Chuck Stefan leaves his long eyelashes to some girl who needs them.

Ron Svoboda hereby wills his consistent and hearty laughter at incidents humorous or not, to Paul Pease, hoping he may use it as freely and pleasurably as he has.

Ed Tardif bestows the long walk to and from Oak St. every morning and night to "Little George Fields" with hopes that he gets more rides than Ed did.

Tiny Vereb wills her majoretting position to Sara Jane Overholt and hopes that Sara has as much fun as she did.

Jo Viergutz leaves her enjoyment of math to Dorothy Stipek.

Russell Walker wills his fun in M. H. S. to anyone who likes to mess around.

Russell Wallace wills his car to anyone who likes to drive.

Bucky Walter bequeaths his privilege of being the first one to leave after assembly to Neal Fisher; and to Bert Leidorf he leaves his ability to go to school three periods each day.

Dutch Warner wills her good times in M. H. S. to anyone who likes to have fun.

Monkey Watkins bestows his positions as manager of the reserve basketball team to anyone who would like to do the job.

Dolores West wills her ability to take shorthand to any under classman who thinks she can pass the subject.

Lois West bequeaths her ability to laugh at anything to Irene Oravec—providing she uses it.

John Wightman leaves his ability on the parallel bars to Bill Collins. May he carry on.

Dimples Winebrenner wills her cute dimples, charming smile and pleasing personality to Mary Lou Aikman who could get along with Mr. Dague better if she had them.

Yeag Yeager leaves M. H. S. and all the good luck and good times she has had the last four years to all the freshmen who can put up with the other things that go with it.

Hal Yost wills his foul shooting form to Ronnie Duke, and his high jumping to Eddie Hindle.

Becky Young leaves. "Parting is such sweet sorrow"—Shakespear. "That I must now a hankie borrow"—Young.
